

The Five Natural Elements are
Water, Wood, Fire, Earth, and Metal

	Water	Wood	Fire	Earth	Metal
Element	Fountains; aquariums; bowl of water	Wood items or furnishings; Trees, plants, flowers	Fire, candles, fireplace, chiminea, bright lights, sunlight	Soil, rocks, primitive stone and quartz, honed marble	All metal objects
Colors	Black, dark colors	Green, Blue	Red, purple, magenta, reddish orange	Earth tones (sandy to peat moss), yellow	White, off-white, gold, silver, gray, pastels
Shapes	Freeform, flowing; paisley; wavy patterns	Vertical, columns; vertical blinds, striped wallpaper	Triangle, pyramid, star shape, conical shapes	Square, rectangle, horizontal lines	Round, oval, circular shapes; arches and domes
Materials	Glass, mirror, plastics	Bamboo, Cotton & Rayon	Animal prints, leather, bones	Ceramics, terracotta, clay objects, brick and tile	Gemstones, polished stone and marble
Others	Sinks & toilets	Books	Zig zag patterns	Low, wide furniture
Images	Water landscapes	Forest, flower landscapes	People, animals, fire, sun and star artwork	Open landscapes, deserts	Art with metallic, gold or silver leaf finishes